

TIE BREAKING PROTOCOL

Rules: there will be no ties for first second and third places. If a tie occurs within a heat for first place then the tiers will run one more heat to break the tie to make first and second place winners; likewise for a second place tie, the tie will be broken for second and third place winners and a tie for third will be broken for third and fourth place winners.

There will be no tie for the series champion. If a tie occurs on the final point total the tie will be attempted to be broken by the following calculations:

- If it is determined soon enough, there will be a head to head tie breaking run. If the tie is discovered after the race is over the following criteria will determine the winner in this order:
 - The person that attended the most races will be the series champion winner.
- If this does not break the tie then;
 - The person with the two highest placements will be the series champion winner.

As a last resort, if this does not break the tie then;

- A coin toss will determine the series champion winner.
